ONLY ABOUT 1400 VOTES CAST TUESDAY

Official Tabulation Made Wednesday, Is Given This Week

With only one county contest and one district contest on the republican ticket and no contests for county office on the democrat ticket, there was an extremely light primary vote Tuesday. About 1400 votes were cast altogether with about 1100 being cast in the republican primary.

The contests for United States Senator on both tickets failed to stir much enthusiasm, and as a result only about 16% of the voters turned out in this county.

Cline C. Herren, probate judge, defeated J. P. Smith, present prosecuting attorney, for the nomination for the recently created important office of probate judge and ex-officio magistrate. The official count is 788 votes for Herren and 299 votes for Smith.

The only other county contest was between J. L. Uchtman, Fordland, and N. P. Jacobsen, Diggins, for judge of the county court from the western district. Uchtman won by a vote of 446 to 181. Other candidates for office on both republican and democrat tickets had no opposition.

James P. Kem, Kansas City lawyer, republican, swept this county for the nomination for United Senator against four opponents. He carried the state in equal easy fashion.

With 3795 precincts out of 4528 in the state reported the vote for the republican candidates for United States Senator was:

Elmer	26,579
Grosby	15,569
Kem	112,491
Mabee	19,355
Thomas	28,911

Frank P. Briggs, democrat CIO
